This year's conference seeks to deconstruct the divisions between art and scholarship, writing and criticism, academia and society, music and life. We wish to create an event that gets people talking about how the things we do (Art, Literature, Ethnic Studies, Philosophy, History, Classics, Music, Science, etc.) can stand as transformative experiences that become praxis, changing the ways we live our lives in challenging times. Additional event info: <http://english.clas.asu.edu/refusingdivision>. Questions? Contact Ginger.Hanson@asu.edu or call 480-965-7611.
