Dexter L. Booth (MFA 2012) is from Richmond, Virginia. In addition to his debut collection, Scratching the Ghost, his poems have appeared in Blackbird, The Journal, Virginia Quarterly Review, Amendement, Grist, the New Delta Review, Willow Springs, and the anthology The Burden of Light: Poems on Illness and Loss. Booth is currently a PhD candidate and Provost Fellow at the University of Southern California.

Patricia Colleen Murphy (MFA 1996) is originally from Cincinnati, Ohio. In addition to her May Swenson Poetry Award for Hemming Flames, her work has received awards from the Associated Writing Programs and the Academy of American Poets, Gulf Coast, Bellevue Literary Review, The Madison Review, Glimmer Train, and The Southern California Review. A chapter of her memoir-in-progress was published as a chapbook by New Orleans Review. She is founding editor of Superstition Review at Arizona State University, where she teaches creative writing and magazine production.

Sarah Vap (MFA 2005) grew up in Missoula, Montana. She is the author of six collections of poetry, including Viability (National Poetry Series winner), Dummy Fire (Saturnalia Poetry Prize); American Spikenard (Iowa Poetry Prize), Faulkner’s Rosary; Arco Iris (Library Journal Best Book of 2012); and After the Sentimental Journey. Vap is recipient of an NEA Literature Fellowship for Poetry. She is completing her PhD at the University of Southern California.