THE 55th ANNUAL
GLENDON AND KATHRYN SWARTHOUT
AWARDS IN WRITING
FICTION AND POETRY GUIDELINES

1. There will be eight awards given annually, known as the “Glendon and Kathryn Swarthout Awards in Writing.” These will consist of a first, second, and third prize and honorable mention in poetry; and a first, second, and third prize and honorable mention in fiction. In 2017, first prizes will be $1,500, second prizes $1,000, third prizes $500, and honorable mention awards $200. Winners must be present at the awards ceremony on April 20th. Otherwise, the prize money will be returned to the Swarthout Fund for next year’s prizes.

2. Competition will be open to students not yet twenty-six (26) years of age by the entry date for the awards (March 3, 2017) and enrolled not less than half-time in any college of Arizona State University.

3. Each student may submit a manuscript of up to six pages of poetry and/or one fiction manuscript—up to thirty (30) pages—consisting of a short story, a novel, or a section thereof.

4. There will be no repeat winners of first prizes within a category: fiction or poetry.

5. Entry forms (see the second page of this document) must accompany all submissions. Entries must be turned in at the Department of English office, LL542.

6. The student’s name must appear only on the entry form, and not on the title page or on the pages of the text. Turn in two copies of your poetry or your fiction manuscript. Each entry (poetry or fiction) must be accompanied by one entry form. Incomplete or incorrect entries will not be reviewed.

7. DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION is Friday, March 3, 2017, 4:00 p.m. No extension to this deadline will be made. Please deliver entries to the Department of English office, LL542.

8. The 55th annual GLENDON & KATHRYN SWARTHOUT Awards in Writing will be held on Thursday, April 20, 2017 at the ASU University Club. Winners must be present at the awards ceremony.
